 - b. The School Report Card will be posted this week. Both schools were ranked "commendable"
 - c. Weekend Warrior - Thanks for the support from PTC. Staff are now able to do "payroll deductions" to donate to Weekend Warrior. Some have selected to do this.
 - d. Construction update: Wrapping up the solar projects. Committee continues to meet for the PreK and EC addition. Had some delays in the planning process with concerns about mines in the local area. Should be in by the end of 2026 school year.
 - e. Principals Week - we took time to appreciate the principals
 - f. Thank a Board Member DAY - was last Friday (11/15)
 - g. Looking for Paraprofessionals. If you know of anyone interested, direct them to the office with inquiries.
6. Principal's Reports
 - a. Elementary (Mr. Nathan Rakers)
 - i. Treats for Troops - bags of leftover candy from Halloween were made into baggies
 - ii. Good drive last week- met the goal of 500 items collected. Each grade will get a gym jam
 - iii. The Veterans Day parade and Glee club song was great!
 - iv. Bossler asked about Santa for Gingerbread night. Charges $50 per hour due to needing to clean his suit but is willing to do $25 per hour for us.

- b. Middle by Mr. Heuring
 - i. Basketball is going strong.
- 7. Teacher Liaison Reports
 - a. Elementary School (TBD) - DeAnn Doolittle!!!
 - i. No report at this time.
 - b. Middle School (Michelle Burton)
 - i. Thank you for the Conference dinners & they loved the tablecloths
 - ii. Ordered the 5th grade new equipment & Good News Party
 - iii. Fall Fest went pretty well. Had to be moved inside due to wind and weather.

8. Old Business:

- a. Elementary School Teacher Liaison - DeAnn Doolittle has agreed. Amy Jung will help give her some guidance on what the role entails.
- b. Past Events - Overviews & Reports
 - i. No discussion on the Conferences and Fall Fest
 - ii. Class parties - got a little bit of a late start. Amy Jung got feedback that she is willing to share. It was a little light on the activities. A week or two before, teachers would be told what would be in the box so teachers knew what to expect.
